PLC Sydney Students' Photographic Prize 2016

Botanical: Dream, Story & Survival

CONDITIONS

- The Photographic Prize is open to all PLC Sydney students from Pre-Kindergarten to Year 12 and PLC Staff. $200 1st prize and $50 prize gift vouchers generously sponsored by PLC Sydney Foundation for Highly Commended in each section. Sections are: PK to Yr 2; Yr 3 to 6; 7 & 8; 9 & 10; 11 & 12 and Transition. Staff (non-award). This year's theme is 'Botanical: Dream, Story & Survival'. Entries should consider unique investigations into capturing atmospheric dream-like landscapes. The image could include but is not limited to a narrative approach constructed in natural and urban environments, or evocative outdoor shots exploring environmental issues such as conservation and survival. Junior school students could consider creating a story in a landscape.
- See more of Daniel Shipp's work at www.danielshipp.com for inspiration.
- All photographs are to be printed in Colour or Black and White, A4 size. Images may be printed digitally but should be on photographic quality paper.
- Use of a film camera, digital camera, mobile phone or any other photographic technique is encouraged.
- All photographs must be presented in a plastic sleeve along with the completed entry form.
- Entrant's name, class and title of photograph must be clearly written on the back of the photograph.
- Please note: Entry forms and photographs will not be returned unless arranged prior.
- Each student is allowed TWO entries.
- Entries may be left at Evandale Office, Hamilton Office, Senior School, College Shop or The Croydon by 3.30 pm Friday 1 April 2016
- Finalists in the Prize will be notified by mail and have their photograph exhibited in conjunction with the contemporary photographic exhibition in the Adelaide Perry Gallery.
- All other entrants will have their images displayed as a digital slide show at the exhibition.
- Winners and award recipients in each section will be announced and presented at the opening of the exhibition Thursday 28 April 2016 at 6.00 pm in the Adelaide Perry Gallery.
